RESEARCH MISSION

DRM MOST (MARCHÉS, ORGANISATIONS, SOCIÉTÉ ET TECHNOLOGIES)

Dauphine-PSL invites applications for a vacant Assistant Professorship in critical management studies in DRM MOST (Markets, Organisations, Society and Technologies), one of the Organizational research teams of DRM.

The MOST team comprises a group of researchers specialised in different fields of management around a project based on the critical analysis of the managerialisation and merchandisation of society. Its aim is to develop and promote research focused on the relationships between the ways organisations are governed and the markets and managerial technologies deployed to this end. It also aims to identify and propose alternative forms of design, coordination and testing of organised initiatives.

The MOST team researchers conduct work within a range of epistemological paradigms and methodological systems. However, they favour a cross-disciplinary approach and one that places management sciences within the field of social sciences. More information about DRM and MOST team can be found at https://drm.dauphine.fr/

In announcing an assistant professorship in critical management studies, the department wishes to strengthen its areas of interest: 1) Critical perspectives on Corporate Social Responsibility and Sustainable development; 2) Historical perspectives on accounting and management control 3) Critical perspectives on social construction of markets.

RESPONSIBILITIES

•Individual and group based research meeting high international standards

•Promoting Dauphine-PSL’s academic reputation

•Contributing to the administrative responsibilities of the Department and to Dauphine-wide tasks

•Communicating findings to the public in general and to Dauphine’s stakeholders in particular, including participating in the public debate.

•Research meeting high international standards, including responsibility for the academic development of the relevant discipline

•Responsibility for publishing, scientific communication and research-based teaching

•Active participation in the regular research activities, such as research seminars, workshops and conferences.

The assistant professor is expected to contribute to the development and application of the research of the department’s research areas and to maintain and strengthen Dauphine-PSL’s international research position.
